Bernard Robert Champagne

HISTORY

Historically, the 'house' of Bernard ROBERT is one of the oldest in the 'Côte des Bar'!

Indeed, it was in 1945 that Champagne Bernard Robert was established. Created by Marie-Madeleine Dosne, who came from a family of red wine growers and Bernard, her husband an ex-hairdresser.

Both of them learnt about the method named 'Champenoise' and what a difficult time it was! Their first grape picking harvest gave them a production of 300 bottles.

From their marriage came 7 children. 3 of their sons took over the business: Jean-Pierre, Jean-Claude and Hervé.

The estate now spans roughly 30 hectares across seven sites in the heart of Champagne, growing all four principal grape varieties: Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier, Chardonnay and Pinot Blanc.

Today the third generation runs the house: Sébastien (co-manager, alongside uncles Jean-Pierre and Jean-Claude, his mother Johanne, and cousin Jean-Christophe).

The house practises viticulture raisonnée (sustainable/integrated viticulture) across all its vineyards, and champagnes are aged patiently in the family's hand-built cellars before release.
